

Research on Vancouver Voters, 1886

Here is a summary by someone at UBC of the book that I was talking about today: "Vancouver Voters, 1886: A Biographical Dictionary" which contains biographical vignettes and genealogies for about 415 of the 528 persons on the first Vancouver voters list, which was compiled in October 1886.

It is a great resource which can be added to your Resource List.

I have also attached a copy of a page from the Vancouver Public Library which indicates it has 3 copies of the book. I couldn't find a digital version when I had a quick look.

The screenshot shows the Vancouver Public Library website interface. At the top, there are navigation links for English, Help, and Log In / My VPL. Below this is a search bar with the text "Search the Catalogue by Keyword" and a search button. The main content area displays search results for "Vancouver Voters, 1886", a Biographical Dictionary by Claydon, Peter S. N. (Peter Stephen Neil), 1941-. The book is marked as "Available" with 3 copies, 3 available, and 0 on hold. There is a "Place hold" button and a "For Later" option. The "About" section includes a "Preview" button. The "Contributors" section lists Melanson, Valerie Ann and the British Columbia Genealogical Society. The "Subject and genre" section lists Pioneers — British Columbia — Vancouver — Biography.

Thanks.
