

Hudson's Bay Co. refused liquor license - February 14, 1887

Hudson's Bay Co. applied for a wholesale liquor license in connection with groceries. Refused (vote went 8-2) on the grounds that the current by-law did not permit it. One James Pollay asked to use City Hall on Tuesday afternoon to hold an "anti-Chinese meeting" and his request was granted. T.T. Black appointed City Auditor. Dr. Beckinsale sent in an account for $5.00 for "examining a lunatic."

Reports

The Board of Health.

The Board of Health met on Friday February 11th 1887 at 2.0'clock p.m.

The following report is submitted

We have considered the application of Owen Hughes, Steward of the City Hospital for an increase of salary and would strongly recommend that he receive ten dollars in addition to his present salary such increase to date from the first of the present month.

We recommend the payment of the following accounts: -

Dr. Beckinsale to examining a lunatic $ 5.00

Patrick Gannon, meat for Hospital $15.36

Owen Hughes to washing for hospital $ 3.25

J.B. Thornton " groceries " " $ 3.95

Joseph Straus " Wood " " $20.00

We have considered the Bill of Charges sent in by the Royal City Hospital but we did not feel justified in naming any sum to be paid to said institution and have referred Bill back to Council for recommendation.

Regarding the petition of T.B. Mangan re the erection of a Slaughter house we would recommend that the question be left over until the passing of the Health By-Law.

Sgd J.M. Lefevre

Chairman

Report adopted and Royal City Hospital Bill referred to Finance Committee for consideration. Mannion – Sanders.
